Buy More Horses For Chicken Feed

One hundred and thirty-four head of Indian ponies, formerly the property of the Hancock tribe of Indians in Idaho, arrived in Ogden this morning in charge of Frank Irwin, local horse dealer. The horses will follow others of their kind and will be shipped to Yuma, to be converted into feed for chickens.

Practically all of the horses are of the small type, typical of the wild horses of the west. Some are old and decrepit. A few colts are included among the horses. Mr. Irwin reports that many old, decrepit animals which have outgrown their usefulness, are being sold to him as potential chicken feed.

Report on Labor Conditions Here

Although the labor shortage is acute in nearly all parts of the United States the situation is different in Ogden, according to a bulletin issued by "Industrial Relations," which has just been received in Ogden, by the Ogden Chamber of Commerce.

In the bulletin every state in the union is represented and labor conditions noted. The publication is printed monthly and is published by the United States Chamber of Commerce and by all other organizations affiliated with the national body.

Lad Drops From Wagon And Struck by Auto

Lawrence Giles, 16 years old, of 425 Twenty-second street, was injured yesterday afternoon when struck by an automobile at Washington street and Twenty-eighth street. The boy had been riding on the back of a wagon and jumped off just in time to be struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. P. G. Dent. Although the automobile struck the boy and knocked him down, he was not seriously injured. He was removed to his home in the Kirkendall ambulance.

Injured Detective Has Restless Night

Robert H. Chambers, veteran detective of the Ogden police department, who was severely injured yesterday morning when struck by an automobile, experienced a difficult night. Pains from his injuries prevented him from sleeping.

Sugar Plant Worker Has His Arm Crushed

E. C. Troctor, an employee of the Amalgamated Sugar company, suffered a crushed arm this morning when his hand and arm were caught in machinery at the plant. His hand and arm were badly mangled, it is said.

Troctor was immediately rushed to the Dee hospital, where Dr. G. G. Moves treated him. His condition is reported as good and no serious results are expected.

GIRL TELLS OF ALLEGED ATTACK

Case Against Lloyd Treseder Likely to Go to Jury This Afternoon

The trial of Lloyd Treseder, charged with an alleged attack on a fifteen-year-old girl on the tabernacle square on the night of July 18, began this morning in the district court before Judge A. E. Pratt.

The girl upon whom the attack is alleged to have been made, was the principal witness and occupied the stand during practically the entire session. She testified that she met Treseder and another couple on the night of the alleged attack and they went to the theatre together.

After the show, the girl testified, they all walked to the tabernacle square where they sat upon the lawn. After a short while, she said, Treseder and herself were left alone when the other couple moved to another part of the lawn.

Upon cross-examination the girl said that she had told Treseder that she was 15 years of age, while they were on their way to the tabernacle square. She said she made no outcry.

District Attorney Stuart P. Dobbs, is handling the prosecution of the case. Halverson is the principal counsel for the defense.

During the court session this morning, Judge Pratt ordered all spectators from the court room with the exception of relatives of the plaintiff and defendant, close friends and counsel.

The case is expected to go to the jury late this afternoon. The girl had completed her testimony at noon with the exception of a few minutes of redirect examination, which will be conducted by District Attorney Dobbs at the opening of the session this afternoon.

Jurors in the case are Angus Berlin, Richard J. Fowler, Fred F. Bond, John McFarland, Charles H. Storey, Henry Kissel, William S. Chapelle and John N. Spargo.

Body of Utah Soldier Arrives From East

Funeral services for Frank Isakson, who died in France while serving with the 145th field artillery, will be held Sunday at 12:15 o'clock in the Fourth ward chapel. The soldier's body arrived in Ogden this morning and was taken to the Larkin Undertaking parlors.

Former members of B battery of the field artillery will meet at the Larkin parlors at 11:30 o'clock Sunday and from there will go in a body to the war chapel.

Two companies of O. O. T. cadets will attend the funeral and will form a military cortege with full arms, it was announced today.

Private Isakson died of influenza when the regiment was in Camp de Souge, France, near Bordeaux, his body was recently disinterred and sent to New York.

Mrs. Fred Meissner Is Ill From Stroke

Mrs. Fred Meissner, who suffered an attack of paralysis last night while attending a surprise reception given by Republican to Arthur Woolley, in the Virginia restaurant, is reported in a much improved condition this afternoon.

Mrs. Meissner is said to have regained consciousness this morning and is resting easily.

Following the attack last night she was rushed to her home in an ambulance where she was attended by Dr. G. A. Dickson. The stroke came from hemorrhage of the brain. While her condition was believed serious last night, she has greatly recovered today, it was said.

Boyer Arrested for Family Desertion

Frank Boyer, 32, a former switchman employed in the railroad yards here, was arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff Ray West on a charge of desertion of his wife and child. The complaint was sworn to by his wife, Hazel Boyer, of Ogden. The complaint charges failure to provide support for the wife and minor child.

Boyer appeared for arraignment before Judge D. D. Roberts of the city court this morning. He waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court for trial, bail having been fixed at $300. He attempted to plead guilty when he appeared but was informed that the court had no jurisdiction to receive his plea.

Parole Granted to Negro by Commission

Upon recommendation of J. Ray Ward, commissioner of public safety, the board of city commissioners this morning granted a parole to Joe Johnson, colored, who was convicted of drunkenness October 25, in the city court and sentenced to serve fifty days. The commission ordered that Johnson be released today and pay a fine of $25 to the court within sixty days.

WHITEHEAD IS TURNED LOOSE

Girl Repudiates Former Charges On Stand in City Court

Repudiating statements made to the police following the arrest of Earl Whitehead, her uncle, 15-year-old Lulu Pinegar denied on witness stand in city court this morning that her relations with Whitehead were anything but proper.

This resulted in dismissal of the case against Whitehead.

Whitehead was arrested by the police and accused of intimacy with his niece. They had been living together, it is alleged, but Miss Pinegar told court that she slept in a front room and Whitehead occupied a bed in the kitchen.

The statement was made by the girl, the police said, before Captain Jonathan Jones, Captain Robert Burke, Detectives C. Everett Nobles and W. Jones. In this statement they said she revealed what she said then had been the true relationship. On the strength of her statement Whitehead was arrested.

When the girl repudiated these charges in the city court this morning County Attorney J. H. Bates moved to dismiss the case. Judge Pratt granted the motion.

In the following colloquy the county attorney endeavored to impress upon the girl the solemnity of the oath to tell the truth, which she had taken.

"Have your mother ever told you of what will befall girls who lie?" he asked.

"My mother died before she could tell me anything," the girl said.

"Have you ever learned the Ten Commandments?"

"Have you ever heard this? Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor?"

"Yes," said the girl.

Counsel for the defense then intervened, objecting to Attorney Bates' question on grounds that they seemed of indictment of his own witness.

Judge Roberts ordered the hearing to proceed. County Attorney Bates again recommended that Judge Roberts advise the girl regarding the sanctity of the oath which she had taken.

Judge Roberts told the girl and she listened with bowed head and averted eyes. At the conclusion of his remarks, Judge Roberts ordered the hearing to proceed.

County Attorney Bates again recommended that Judge Roberts advise the girl regarding the sanctity of the oath which she had taken.

Miss Pinegar's father in Boise, Idaho, is seriously ill, and it is not in affluent circumstances, but he has forwarded transportation money to his daughter. In event she cares to return to Boise and assist him in the care of her younger sister and brother.

The girl has refused his offer. She will probably be turned over to juvenile court authorities.

Navy Pictures Shown At Elks' Lodge Here

Moving pictures depicting the United States navy's part in the war against German submarines and air raiders were shown at the Elks club last evening under the direction of Commander R. E. Mann, of the Salt Lake central recruiting station. Two hundred members of the order were present.

One of the most interesting scenes was that of sinking a U-boat and rescue of the crew.

The pictures will be shown again in Ogden at a later date. Commander Mann intends to run them off at Evanston, Green River, and Rock Springs, Wyo. during the month of December.

Naval recruits sent from the Ogden station late yesterday included H. E. Duntz of Indianapolis, fireman first class, two-year enlistment; and W. J. Seiberg of New York City, ship's cook, two-year enlistment; all of whom were sent to the receiving ship at San Francisco.

W. H. Schockley of San Francisco, and E. C. Crosta of Denver were sent to the radio electrician school at the Great Lakes training station, Chicago, on three-year enlistments.

Nurse Given $400 In Her Damage Suit

Damages of $400 were awarded by jury yesterday afternoon to Miss Elizabeth McClintock, trained nurse, against Leroy Sessions, A. E. Jensen, former police detective, and Mrs. Malinda Briggs and E. Catherine Hoyle, matrons at the police station, as defendants.

Miss McClintock sued for $20,000 and named Leroy Sessions, his wife, Jensen, Everett Noble, detective, Mrs. Malinda Briggs and E. Catherine Hoyle, matrons at the police station, as defendants.

Twin girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Bacon yesterday at the Dee hospital. Mrs. Bacon was formerly Miss Eva Maw. The father was one of the first men to leave Ogden for Camp Lewis during the early days of the war.

At that time he operated a taxi business in Ogden.

CONVICT KILLED AFTER SHOOTING CONSTABLE
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10.—H. E. Glidden, constable at Lancaster, a small town near here, was shot and killed by two men Tuesday when he stopped them to ask them about the ownership of a newly painted automobile they were driving. Officers pursued the men and killed one, after they had left their automobile and fled to the hills. Early last night the second man surrendered. The dead fugitive was identified as a former convict.

A sanitary cart, divided into compartments for carrying different feeds and equipped with weighing and measuring devices, has been designed for feeding dairy cows special combinations of food.
